THE ARCHIVE
1965

EAST WINDSOR
HIGH SCHOOL
EASTWINDSOR, CONN.

The encouragement and guidance that you have given us as our class advisor for two years, Mrs. Perdue, have been indispensable. Not only have you worked with us faithfully on our major projects, but you have also shown us the importance of class unity and spirit. You have been a person upon whom we knew we could depend, and your understanding and willingness to listen to us have been greatly appreciated. As an expression of our gratitude, we the Class of 1965 award you our highest honor, the dedication of our yearbook.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent

You have the unique distinction of being the first "century" class to graduate from our school system. It is a "first" that no other class can ever claim since this will be the first year that we have over one hundred Seniors. Regardless of the walk of life you choose, have the courage to be "first" as individual citizens of life.

THOMAS F. CATON, JR.
Superintendent of Schools

The Board of Education

FRONT ROW (L. to R.): Mrs. Mary D. Whitehouse, Mrs. Fillmore, recording secretary; Mr. Richard J. Mackintosh, Chairman; Mr. Thomas F. Caton, Superintendent; Mrs. Teresalee Bertinuson.

BACK ROW (L. to R.): Mr. John Fennessy, Mr. Edward J. Hastillo, Mr. Freeman F. Patten, Mr. David Barry. When this picture was taken Charles C. Brewer and Mr. F. James Welton, Jr. were not present.

To members of the Class of 1965:

"A wise man is like a pin. His head keeps him from going too far."

—Modern Maturity

Having reached this stage, all have had experiences in which you have used good judgement, or the other kind. Being sagacious may not be fashionable, but it can mean living longer, happier and even wealthier. It is also one way in which to join the adult world.

Welcome aboard!

GEORGE A. DONOVAN
Principal

The First Band

1965 Marks The Band's Tenth Anniversary

With a band of thirteen strong, and a chorus of sixteen strong (with a microphone), the first music festival was presented at East Windsor in the school year 1955-1956. We were a brand new school, with no senior class, and a "budding" music department.

In the ensuing ten years, the music students have performed at many concerts, participated in All-State music festivals, county and regional concerts, played at various town functions, marched in parades in and out of East Windsor, taken trips, and attended concerts and cultural events.

Some of our students are now performing in military service groups, and in colleges. Some have entered the field of education as music teachers.

The students participating in this year's tenth anniversary music festival will endeavor to live up to the standards set by the many bandsmen and the untold number of chorus members who have made music in former festivals.

TOURNAMENT TEAM '64-'65

Our PANTHERS again made the Class C Tournament. Playing Class C schools, they finished the year with a 10-8 record, giving them a nineteenth place in the ratings.

But our team proved they were better than their record indicated by beating thirteenth ranked North Branford at Plainville with a score of 62-46. Our second victory came at Southington against fifth ranked Washington, with a score of 59-46.

Our third meeting came with top-ranked, undefeated Lyman Memorial, who proved just a little too much for the PANTHERS. Their 20-point rally in the last quarter gave them a 56-44 victory.

So the PANTHERS returned to East Windsor with a heartbroken yet proud group of fans behind them. This is one basketball season East Windsor will not soon forget.
